

CALLING ALL ARTISTS

Many artists have already committed to creating and donating a piece to VLSP for the 2011 Art of Lawyering silent auction, which opens with a gala reception at VLSP's offices on Thursday, October 6, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. We can use more donations of artwork and encourage artistic legal professionals – including judges, lawyers, paralegals, legal secretaries, court personnel – to make tax deductible donations of artwork to VLSP's Art of Lawyering. We welcome artists of all types, including painters, potters, photographers, quilters, jewelers, woodworkers and sculptors.

Artistic friends and family members of legal professionals are also welcome to donate art.

Please consider submitting your work for this most worthwhile cause, while showcasing another of your talents. For further information, call Sheila Gaddis, Executive Director of VLSP, at 295-5700 by July 31---- to let us know of your interest, and to provide further information. We want your art on display when Gallery VLSP opens this October.

Donated artwork will be sold in a silent auction opening at the reception on October 6 and running through mid-November. The funds raised will help VLSP provide pro bono legal assistance to low-income residents of Monroe County.

Remember, VLSP is a great way to showcase your talents, whether as an artist or a volunteer!
